Some notable features of the project include:

- 166 guestrooms and 2 suites (all fully-furnished and with attached bathrooms);
- A 210-seat Auditorium for film screenings, lectures and important functions;
- A function hall with a capacity of 200 persons;
- A total of 6 lecture theatres (2 nos. with 84 seats and 4 nos. with 45 seats), all with tiered seating for maximum interaction between students and lecturers;
- 35 breakout/discussion rooms;
- A main circular lounge, breathtakingly lit by a dramatic skylight, provides an excellent place for interaction, relaxing and networking;

- A generous provision of interaction spaces is evident. Lounges, wide corridors, and pockets of gathering spaces in both educational and residential wings, provide excellent opportunities for course attendees to meet, interact and network.

The Centre is also close by existing facilities such as the NTU Sports and Recreation Centre (with its swimming pool, basketball courts, gymnasium and running track), the NTU Staff Club (with its own fitness centre, squash courts, restaurant and bar), the Nanyang Supermarket and Postal Agency, as well as the campus hair salon.

The Nanyang Executive Centre is strategically located in a quiet corner of the NTU campus, tucked away discreetly yet easily accessible by private or public transport.
